The Honorable Janice D. Schakowsky
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Senators Obama and Snowe; Representatives Schakowsky and Shays:

We, the undersigned organizations, are grateful for your leadership and foresight in addressing the need for new HIV prevention methods by introducing the Microbicide Development Act in the 110th Congress.

Twenty-five years into the fight against AIDS, the epidemic has raged nearly unabated, with its epicenter shifting toward women and girls. Women now account for nearly half of adults living with HIV worldwide and comprise an estimated 59% of adults living with HIV in sub-Saharan Africa. In fact, being female, married and poor are often the most significant risk factors for acquiring HIV/AIDS. It is clear that current prevention methods are not sufficient and new tools must be developed and brought to market—especially alternative prevention tools that women can initiate.

We urge you to take action on the Microbicide Development Act, an important bill that would expand research for microbicides—anti-HIV gels, creams, tablets or rings that women could use to protect themselves from infection. The Microbicide Development Act would establish a clearly defined structure at the National Institutes of Health dedicated to microbicide research and development and would strengthen microbicide activities at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the US Agency for International Development. Enactment would help focus, energize and accelerate the U.S. government's research and development on microbicides.

As leaders committed to addressing the HIV/AIDS epidemic and promoting women's health issues, we urge you to act with urgency to move the Microbicide Development Act forward in the 110th Congress.

Sincerely,
