

First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

31 August – 1 September

Nairobi, Kenya

Global Campaign
FOR Microbicides

Expanding HIV prevention options, especially for women

NACC Director Prof. A. Orago gives a presentation during the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

Hon. Njoki Ndung'u former Member of Parliament gives the keynote address during the opening of the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

Pauline Irungu, GCM East Africa Coordinator, gives the overview of the symposium

Global Campaign
FOR Microbicides

Yasmin Halima, Global Campaign for Microbicides Director addresses the participants during the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

Dr. Erasmus Morah, UNAIDS Kenya Country Coordinator makes a commitment during the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

Dr. Peter Cherutich, Head of Prevention, NASCOP makes concluding remarks during the closing of the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention Symposium

Global Campaign
FOR Microbicides

Sharon Olago is crowned the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention champion by Beth Mutugi, the Senior Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Gender, Culture and Social Development (right)

Sharon Olago, the First Kenya Women's HIV Prevention champion addresses participants after her crowning

